

Q: It is very important to have a democratic political system because it ensures that no individual leader has too much power.

